Whom do you want to appoint as guardian to raise your children if you and your spouse both die? Please indicate a successor if the person or couple initially named are unable to serve. Whom do you want to appoint as executor of your estate? Please indicate successors if the first person or persons initially named are unable to serve. 23. There are both family and tax reasons that a trust(s) for the benefit of your family, including your surviving spouse, may be appropriate. Based on the size of your estates, a trust may be necessary for the surviving spouse's life (rather than leaving all property outright to the surviving spouse) in order to maximize estate tax savings. The surviving spouse may be the trustee of the trust(s). If you have minor children, you should name a trustee to manage your property for your children in case both you and your spouse die. You may name an individual alone or as co-trustee with a group of individuals.

a. If a trust during the lifetime of your surviving spouse is appropriate, whom do you want to appoint as trustee or co-trustees? Please indicate successors if the first trustee(s) appointed is (are) unable to serve. (Different persons can be named by each spouse.)

b. If a trust to manage property for your children is appropriate, whom do you want to appoint as trustee for your children after both you and your spouse are deceased? (Different persons can be named by each spouse.)

Trustee(s): _____

Successor(s): _____

- c. Many people are concerned about the effects of possible divorces or creditor claims in their children's lives which could drain or eliminate their inheritance, leaving offspring without the financial security the parents' had hoped to provide for them. To protect a child's inheritance, a "Dynasty Trust" can be created which could pay income (and principal, if necessary) to the children for their lifetimes but not be reachable by the spouses and creditors of the children. This Trust could continue for your descendants for as long as allowed by law. At the meeting, we will discuss whether the children will serve as Trustees of their own trusts, or if a third party will serve as Trustee.

Are you interested in setting up a Dynasty Trust for your children? _____

- d. If you decide not to use a Dynasty Trust for your children's inheritance, you may still believe that the children should not receive total control of a large inheritance in a single lump sum. Frequently two or three distributions are spread over five-year intervals, such as ages 25, 30, and 35. Depending on the size of the estate and the age spread between the children, these distributions can be tied to the age of each child concerned (with separate trusts for each child) or the age of the youngest child (with one trust for all children).

Please indicate your thoughts about the right ages for principal distributions to your children and whether separate trusts should be maintained for each child or one trust for all children.

One trust _____ Separate trusts for each child _____

Ages for distribution: _____, _____, and _____; or other: _____

- e. Do you want to add language giving the Trustee the authority to increase, decrease, or eliminate distributions to an adult child based on the child's willingness to embrace hard work, whether in school or in gainful employment? ____ Yes ____ No
24. Please identify any individuals to whom you might want to leave a cash bequest. Please list the person(s), the address of each, and the amount you wish to leave to each individual, whether the gift is to be made at the husband's death only, wife's death only, each death, or the survivor's death.

25. Please identify any charities (including religious or educational organizations), that you might wish to give a specific bequest. Please list the charity(ies), the address (or location) of each, if known, and the item or amount you wish to leave to each organization. Also, please indicate if the bequest is to be made at the husband's death only, wife's death only, each death, or the survivor's death.

26. For each spouse, please identify any items of personal effects (jewelry, family heirlooms, etc.) that you want to give to a specific person and that person's name.

28. Other documents which complement your Wills include a Directive to Physicians, a Power of Attorney, a Medical Power of Attorney, and a Declaration of Guardianship.

- a. The DIRECTIVE TO PHYSICIANS ("Living Will") directs that artificial life support systems be discontinued in case of terminal illness where death is imminent. (I will provide you with a draft of a Directive to Physicians for your review prior to actually signing the document.) Would you or your spouse like to execute a Directive to Physicians?

HUSBAND: Yes _____ No _____

WIFE: Yes _____ No _____

- b. The POWER OF ATTORNEY provides that your designated agent may handle your financial matters at any time. The Power of Attorney will not terminate upon your disability or incompetency. This is designed to avoid a costly guardianship proceeding. Usually the spouse of the incapacitated individual is named as the designated agent. Whom do you want to serve as your agent? Please indicate a successor if your designated agent is unable to serve. Also, please indicate if you feel the Power of Attorney should become effective immediately upon signing, or if you prefer that it become effective only upon your disability. (Please note that this option requires your agent to obtain a letter from your physician indicating your disability before any powers can be exercised.)

This document deals with health care decisions other than life support in terminal illness (which is covered by the Directive to Physicians). Again, the spouse of the incapacitated person is usually named as the agent. Whom do you want to serve as your designated agent? Please indicate a successor if your designated agent is unable to serve. Please indicate whether you would like us to send a copy of your executed form to your doctor.

You may also designate specific persons who you do not want to serve as your guardian. Although the Power of Attorney as well as the Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care are both designed to prevent guardianships, a guardianship may still be necessary. The "guardian of the person" handles personal care matters, while the "guardian of the estate" takes care of financial matters. Whom do you want to name as your guardian? Is there anyone you do not want to serve as guardian under any circumstances?

Please list any individuals you want to name in this document other than the persons you name on your Medical Power of Attorney. (We will automatically include those persons in this document.) Also, please give the address and telephone number for each person named, unless that information is already provided elsewhere in this Questionnaire.
